

Retirements

ANNA LABARGE, Service Guard, retired January 1 after 12 years of service. Anna was stationed at Washtenaw and Marquette throughout her entire career. A trip throughout the south and Washington, D. C. are the first plans for Anna and her husband Alfred, who has just retired after 42 years with the C.T.A. After that a trip through the southwest is contemplated by the LaBarges. Anna has five children and ten grandchildren and has been very active in the Parent-Teachers Association, service as president at the McKay School. Her hobbies are crocheting and walking.
